

THE IMPORTANCE OF LEARNING ENGLISH

One of the most widespread languages in the world is English. It is an international language which opens a lot of countries and cultures up to you. If you learn it, you will perceive the world completely differently. There is some interesting statistics about English that seems to be appealing. It is known that people are fond of this language and it is commonly used by people as a means of communication.

It's hard to imagine our lives without Internet nowadays. It has become an important part of every person's life. A great part of the Web-sites on the Internet that have useful information is in English. There are some English social networks that are popular with the Ukrainians.

Nowadays people have a lot of opportunities to be well-educated because they have a chance to learn English in a big amount of schools, colleges and universities. It is undoubtedly easier to learn in comparison with another foreign language, such as Chinese. English is widely used in scientific sphere that is why it is impossible to be a good scientist without knowing this language.

People should learn English to broaden horizons. If you want to have vivid imagination, just learn English in different ways and you will benefit a lot. There is a lot of opportunity to read works by foreign authors in the original, listen to favorite music and understand English speech in films without subtitles, because it is the language of the Film Industry.

Knowing English opens job opportunities in many countries and markets. Employees who speak English in the United States earn more money than non-English speakers. Knowing English will make you bilingual and more competitive in every country in the world.

Speaking English when you travel enables you to enjoy a greater level of independence than you otherwise might. People can explore the world in an easy way, if they are even partly fluent in English. That's why it is so important to learn it.